

REDFIELD EDGE PRIMARY SCHOOL

Before completing this request form, parents are asked to consider how non attendance at school might affect their child's progress. It is not only the time missed in class but the settling in time after the holiday which needs to be considered. (Please note in line with local authority policy and all other local schools no holiday request will be granted during term time. For further information please refer to the attendance policy, a copy of which can be requested from the office). Completed forms should be returned to the office well in advance of the proposed holiday, and well before any booking is made.
